Sales Composition Performance forecasts for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2015

Advertising fees will comprise around 30% of revenues, and the operating profit ratio will drop 2.2% due to up-front investments.

Cost of sales and other SG&A: Expected to temporarily increase due to greater interior EC service costs, digital marketing costs, and investment into new services, etc.

We plan to spend less on advertising once the recognition rate hits a certain level.

Personnel costs: Increased revenues have improved the composition ratio. 20 people joined the company in April 2014 (12 more than the 8 that joined last year). Bonuses fluctuate in accordance with operating profits.

■ The Founding of the Company

While working at Recruit COSMOS (now COSMOS INITIA), he had a young couple as his clients. He showed them a property that they were very interested in, and decided immediately to purchase. However, their loan application was rejected, and they were crestfallen. Inoue, seeing this, determined to find another property that would satisfy their desires, so he began showing them various properties, regardless of whether the properties were handled by Recruit COSMOS.

Eventually, the couple signed a contract for a condominium that Inoue had shown them, but which was handled by another company. Inoue was scolded by his manager, but this did not detract from his strong desire to keep bringing smiles to peoples' faces, as he had to the faces of the young couple.

At the time, access to real estate property information was relatively closed, and even for Inoue, part of the real estate industry, obtaining information on properties was both time and labor intensive. In 1997, Inoue founded NEXT, Co., Ltd., as a way to change the real estate system itself and its "asymmetry of information", in which general customers, for whom obtaining property information required even more of an investment in time and effort, had to pick properties from only a limited selection of data.
